

ACCESS THE AKASHIC

johngilbertscientist.com

24th Issue / June 28, 2016

Contents

1. Message For Tarot Users
2. What God or Entity Does The Scientist Work With, If Any?
3. Primary Fallacies of Dowsing
4. Story of King Cepheus
5. Notes on Koot Hoomi Contact

Tarot has changed on the astral since 2009. Now it is more difficult to obtain what are considered readings. Do not fool yourself about it. NXXS recommends to abstain if possible from what is considered 'tarot divination.' Should an explanation be necessary?

The year 2019 will be a year for Tarot practice. It will become clear that the XVIII MOON is also the XVI Tower hiding within it. If you have penetrated into the XVIII MOON arcane symbol, then you also know the meaning of XVI Tower. Be careful. Why? First of all, Tarot is not exactly what has been taught about it.

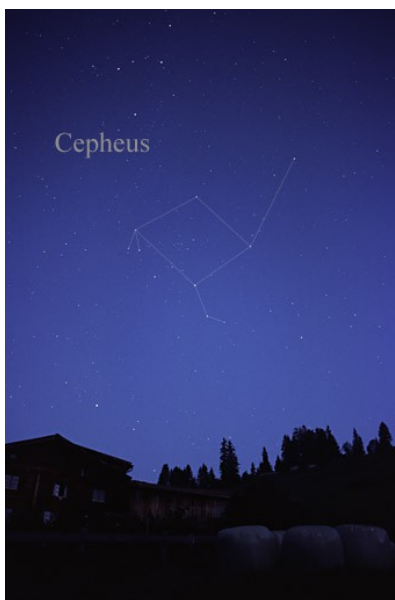

The God/Entity of choice and primary purpose for the sake of real clairvoyance and occultism is Thoth. Thoth is Mercury. Psychology, myth and symbol combined three-in-one. Thoth is Tarot Card One, Thoth the Magician. No difference except the subtle inter-related one. Thoth is Satan, if you will. Seth is Thoth. Many many names but the same idealized daemon. The Magician does not worship any demons or gods, no, but the representation of Thoth is a Mind. Mercury is Thoth. Mercuria. No true Magician has ever ignored the Way of Thoth. His realm is Being and Thought.

A word about Pendulum Dowsing. It is a useful sport, yet with several ignorant fallacies commonly attached to it. Do not enter into it with much force or else you will fail. The Operator must be present. The actual swing of the pendulum does not relate to the ability of the Operator and his/her Daemon to gain access to accuracy. A pendulum can be used however one sees fit, but do not stretch the odds against yourself. You may not be necessarily getting the best readings until you have total reach of the astral over the hand and body. To believe that a pendulum is an easy way to become accurate is a fallacy. Sometimes there are no error correcting tools at hand. This is a problem. Be careful and smart because once you start trying to read pendulums you may find yourself in the midst of several pitfalls and fallacies. There is a region of accuracy that can be obtained depending solely on he or she who operates. You have yourself, the operator, then you have the Operator and then you have the Daemon and Astral guide (not channeled, but magical) and then you have the actual physical device. Hold it steady and wait for the go-ahead signal from the subtle field. Now allow the Daemon to as well give you a go-ahead. This is still not without it's difficulty.

—

In Greek mythology, Cepheus was the name of two kings in Aethiopia, grandfather and grandson. The better known Cepheus is the son of Agenor and grandson of the other Cepheus. He was married to Cassiopeia, with whom he had a beautiful daughter, Andromeda. At some point, his wife committed hubris by boasting that she and her daughter were more beautiful than the daughters of the sea god Nereus, the Nereids. This triggered the wrath of god Poseidon, who either flooded the lands of Aethiopia or sent a terrible sea creature called Cetus to ravage the coasts of the area. Cepheus and Cassiopeia consulted an oracle on what they should do, and they were advised to sacrifice their daughter to Cetus in order to appease the god. They chained Andromeda to a rock close to the sea, but as Cetus drew close, the hero Perseus arrived in time to save her and kill the monster.

—

Something About Koot Hoomi Contact and Responses

Let me speak in first person,

Hi this is the author of Access the Akashic. I put a video online showing me doing a live Tarot-card reading in which I made contact with Koot Hoomi. Several comments were headed my way eventually. A good comment came through. Other than the first good comment, the other comments were disappointing. The science behind this contact was denigrated viciously by some of the occultist people working with the masters. I'm not sure what group they were involved with—it doesn't matter.

Here are some facts straight from me.

- Firstly, KH/Morya the group known as KH contacted me, not me to them.
- I have gained nothing financially whatsoever and suffer in this area.
- I was reluctant to do the reading publicly, but was prompted by KH
- I am not a “channeler” nor am I a traditional Tarot reader by any means.
- I never give Tarot readings for kick backs and I realize the perversion in that (receiving money for spirituality)
- I did not know what KH would say to me through the communication for the video shown
- He did not say what some of the believers expected, and therefore they were not “convinced” or whathaveyou
  - It seems to me that some people are seeking them out looking for a savior equivalent
  - I stand by the video reading to this day as being sincere, and entirely unique
- My method is completely unique in Tarot and I have little to do with any other contemporary currents of thought in this. But those who would comment with condescension did not see this, or were displeased by it.

In summary, it is clear to me that very few know the real science behind the contact of the masters and find a different standpoint that involves more of the exoteric. I do not wish to carry on long debates about this because it spiritually unprofitable. The Tarot is not what people believe it to be and I have only hinted at my extent of ability with it, however I do not use it currently.

I am nearly astonished at the level of incorrectness among this Master-seeking community. I feel as though it would be useless to go through the various esoteric steps to obtain it because of a sort of doctrinarian clique surrounding them or just base mysticism that obtains little for the Self.

This is in congruence with the results of that reading.

It is to the point where they will write me off completely not based on results or on methodology or on wisdom, but on something else doctrinary based positioning in lackluster occultism of our age.

It is too bad, but it is not my karma to adjust it at this point. I have rather been urged to back away from attempting any public instruction. It's esoteric and there are plenty of blinds set up along that way.

To the point where even the most initiated so-called priest or priestess of the high organization for worship or contacting of the beings known as the Great are insufficiently instructed and do not have the philosophy correct.

